

Corporate Profile

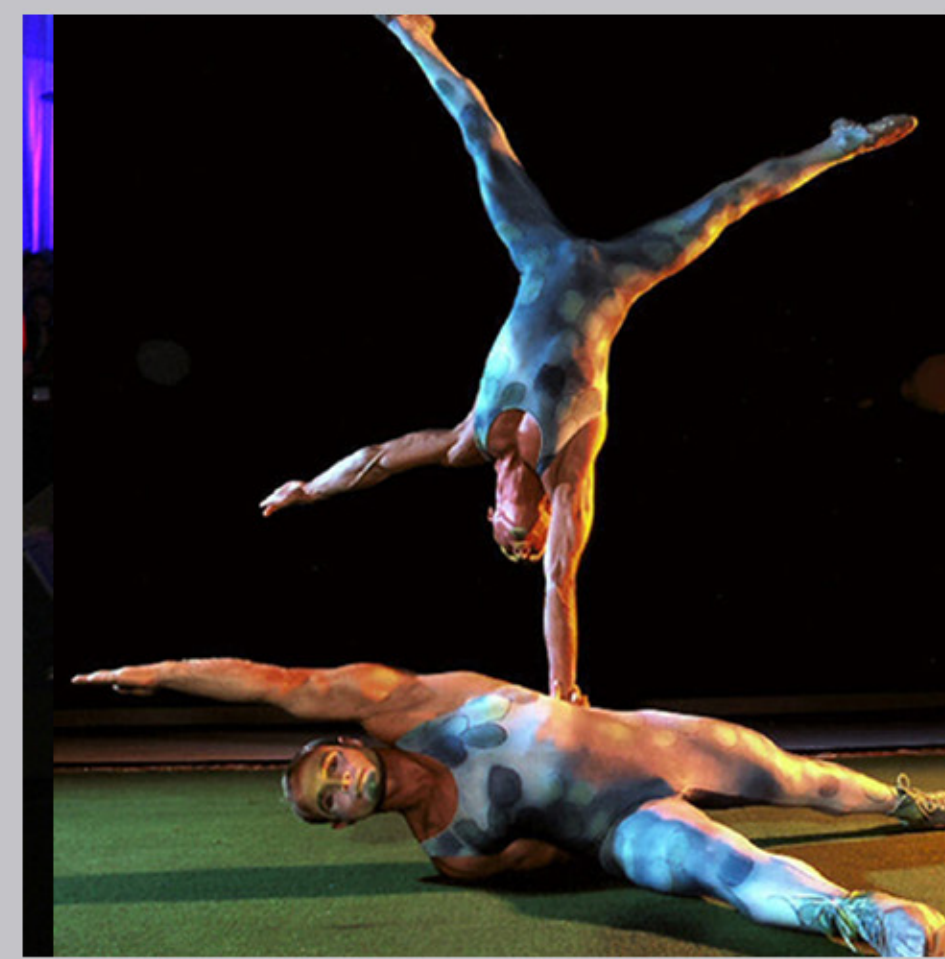

Destinations by Design provides high-quality destination management and event services to the incentive and corporate markets. Our primary objective is to do things right, because we understand that, in our business, there are no second chances. We pride ourselves in developing and delivering creative, cost-effective solutions for our clients and do so while maintaining a superior level of service.

Joyce Sherman and James Nelson, joined by Tami Hance, privately own Destinations by Design. Their commitment to excellence is embraced by each member of their staff and implemented into everyday operations, enabling Destinations by Design to establish an impeccable reputation for providing the finest service and creativity in Las Vegas.

Destination Services

Our experienced Destination Services team collaborates with you to create a memorable program through exciting excursions, golf outings, challenging teambuilding, unique restaurant and nightclub venues, and awe-inspiring Las Vegas shows; all while traveling in the cool comfort of luxury transportation. At Destinations by Design, we love Las Vegas, indoors and out!

Entertainment

Entertainment is the lift-off for an extraordinary event. Music, comedy, art and dance collide; lighting the fuse that ignites the senses. From great up-and-coming local acts to major comedic or musical headliners, Destinations by Design works directly with the entertainers or their agents, to bring you the best entertainment at the best possible prices.

The studio @ dbd

Our studio designs, develops and fabricates a full-range of artistic event concepts that uniquely complement a corporate voice or vision as required by today's most innovative, leading planners and clientele. Our creative capabilities encompass floral design, graphics and printing, furniture, linen collections and more.
